

Shao-Yu Chen

User Experience / User Interface Researcher / Designer

Seeking UI/UX Positions
starting summer 2017

Core Skills

Experimental design and user testing
User experience and user interface design
Excellent communication and teamwork skills
Graphic design (Gimp, Photoshop)
Rapid prototyping (Wireframing, Axure, Sketchup)
Basic statistical analysis
Basic programming

Education

Georgia Institute of Technology Master of Science in Human-Computer Interaction	Aug, 2015 – May, 2017 (expected)
Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee Bachelor of Art in Psychology	Aug, 2010 – May, 2014
University of North Alabama, Florence, Alabama Transient Student	Summers of 2010 – 14

Projects & Experience

Internship at the Grove, Elavon (Summer, 2016)

served as User Interface/User Experience intern at the Grove, the innovation center at Elavon, inc. Work included user interface design, user research, and creating a component library for other designers at the Grove

Displays for Automatic Lane Keeping (Spring, 2016)

helped in designing and running an experiment that investigates potential driver's preferences to visual icons that displays the status of automated lane keeping functions in automobiles

Sonified Fantasy Football Draft Interface Design (Fall, 2015)

initial designing of fantasy football draft with sonification. Produced a video demo to illustrate the interface at work.

Hit the Gym - HCI Class project (Fall, 2016)

Group project in which I handled designs, analysis, and reports for the user testing phase, in addition to discovering user requirements and graphic design.

You are doing great! – Effect of Performance Analysis on Player Retention (Spring, 2015) extracurricular research project studying the effect of automated positive encouragements on competitive video game player's decision making.

2015 Research Day Booklet for the University of North Alabama (Spring, 2015)

designed program booklets for the UNA Three Minute Thesis competition.

University of North Alabama Art Department website (Spring, 2015)

collaborated with faculty to update the Art Department's transition to new web platform.

University of North Alabama Student Business Incubator (Spring, 2015)

created architectural 3D model and designed poster graphics.

Portfolio & Contact

www.s-ychenux.com

shao-yu.chen@gatech.edu

256-702-7330